INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund seeks long-term capital growth and income through an actively managed portfolio of equity and fixed income securities.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund's investment process focuses on asset allocation, segment composition, and security selection. The Adviser seeks to construct a diversified portfolio of reasonably valued equity and fixed income securities of high quality companies and issuers.

Asset Allocation

Asset allocation can be the foremost determinant of total portfolio return in most market environments. Moreover, tactical shifts among asset classes can enhance returns and reduce risk over time. Using quantitative and qualitative inputs to forecast asset class returns over a range of US and global economic scenarios, the Adviser sets policy to produce a prudent risk-return portfolio.

Segment Composition

Within both the equity and fixed income segments, the Adviser makes judgments about portfolio composition intended to both enhance return and manage risk. These judgments include considerations such as sector allocation and portfolio duration.

Security Selection

Equity—The Adviser seeks to identify and invest in stocks of higher quality companies at reasonable prices. Higher quality companies are those judged to have sustainable business models, financial stability, prudent capital management, and financial statements that indicate past economic success. The Fund's equity investments are diversified across economic sectors.

Fixed Income—Fixed income holdings are generally those issued by either the US government and its agencies, or investment-grade securities of higher quality US corporations. The Adviser seeks to add value through duration management, yield curve strategies, sector rotation, and individual security selection.

EQUITY SECTOR ALLOCATION

FUND RISKS

Equity securities (stocks) are generally more volatile and carry more risk than fixed income securities (bonds) and money market investments. The net asset value per share of this Fund will fluctuate as the value of the securities in the portfolio changes. Common stocks, and funds investing in common stocks, generally provide greater returns over long time periods than fixed income securities. Compared to stocks, bonds generally offer a relatively stable level of income. However, like stocks, bonds will fluctuate, thereby incurring the likelihood of principal gain or loss. The Fund is comprised primarily of equity and fixed income securities and is subject to market risk. Stocks may decline due to general market and economic conditions or due to company specific circumstances.

INDEX DEFINITIONS

The S&P 500 is representative of the investible universe of U.S. large capitalization companies.

The Bloomberg Barclays Capital U.S. Government/Credit Bond Index measures the performance of U.S. Dollar denominated U.S. Treasuries, government-related and investment grade U.S. corporate securities that have a remaining maturity of greater than one year.

The 90-Day U.S. Treasury Bill Index reflects monthly return equivalents of yield averages that are not marked to the market. The index is an average of the last 3-month Treasury Bill issues. The 3-month Treasury Bills are the short-term debt obligations of the U.S. Government.

The Russell 1000® Index measures the performance of the large-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. It is a subset of the Russell 3000® Index and includes approximately 1000 of the largest securities based on a combination of their market cap and current index membership. The Russell 1000® represents approximately 92% of the U.S. market. Russell Investment Group is the source and owner of the trademarks, service marks and copyrights related to the Russell Indexes.
